Rockfield Manor seeks Volunteers for the Harford County Wine Festival

The Wine Festival is a signature event for Rockfield Manor

(Bel Air, MD) - Organizers need your help as they plan for the 8th Annual Harford County Wine Festival. The Wine Festival will be held on Saturday, September 28 at Rockfield Manor.

Organizers of the event need volunteers who are 21 and older. Volunteers will be responsible for ticket sales, checking identification, registration, beer and wine sales and beverage servers working from 11:30am to 6pm.

Advanced training is not required; however, volunteers must submit a signed memorandum because this event has a special liquor license from the Harford County Liquor Control Board.

This year a portion of the proceeds will be donated to Harford County Toys for Tots. It's a program that provides toys to needy children. Organizers hope the children will grow into responsible, productive and patriotic community leaders.

The Harford County Wine Festival is one of Rockfield Manor's signature events, which helps the preservation of the Manor.

Contact Volunteer Harford at 410-638-3389 or email volunteer@volunteerharford.org if you would like to volunteer with the Wine Festival.
